"In Flores de Villa, Peru, our family of five experienced the warmth and joy of a community ready to embrace the love of Jesus. We had the privilege of helping lead the first Vacation Bible School for children ages 5-8, where we shared three simple truths: God created everything, Jesus is your friend, and you can talk to Jesus and He will listen. Through prayer, play, songs, and crafts, we brought the Bible story to life, and the children responded with enthusiasm and reverence, even giving us morning hugs as a heartfelt expression of connection.

This mission trip not only allowed us to serve and share the hope we have in Christ but also deepened our own faith and increased our commitment to caring for others as an investment in God's kingdom."
